

Biffa Press Release

20/05/2010

New Chief Executive at Biffa

The Board of Biffa announces that Andre Horbach has decided to step down as CEO of the Group. The Board has appointed Mark Keough as interim CEO of the Group with immediate effect.

Mark Keough has over 20 years experience at a senior management level including being a partner at McKinsey, COO of a large electronics distribution company and most recently CEO of a leading pan-European healthcare services provider.

Bill Woodburn, Chairman of Biffa, commented:

“On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank Andre for his contribution to the Group and wish him well for the future. Mark’s background and experience mean that he is well suited to lead the Group into its next phase of growth and I’m delighted to welcome him to Biffa.”

Mark Keough, commented:

“This is an exciting time to join Biffa as the company continues with its strategy of developing integrated waste management solutions to best meet customers’ current and future needs. I look forward to working with the Board and management team to ensure the success of the business going forward. “

Andre Horbach, commented:

“I have enjoyed my time leading Biffa. I am confident that Biffa has a strong future ahead of it and I wish the company every success going forward.”
